

SHIFT

your response™

SHIFT -- the artful tension of mindset and skillset, aligned with action, that is welcomed, inclusive, mindful, and collaborative, with a keen awareness of the human impact that change can cause.

About Us

Organized SHIFT is the fastest-growing change leadership firm dedicated to helping companies respond to change efficiently, quickly, and with a focus on data and diversity. We believe that a people-driven, data-led approach in the workplace, creates safe spaces where people feel valued, seen, heard, and like they belong.

Approach

Our proprietary SHIFT approach leverages real-time data, proven change methodology, and cutting-edge behavioral science to effectively coach and upskill your response to change.

Founded in 2019, Organized SHIFT is pioneering innovation in leadership development offering interactive, multisensory experiences to address skill gaps caused by fear, overwhelm, and the breakneck pace and complexity, of the modern-day workplace.
